Sponsorships

- During our 2023 Shop Local Give Local campaign, UMCU teamed up with more than 100 local restaurants, shops, businesses and our members to donate $5,000 to the Ann Arbor Community Center. They are a charity that helps socioeconomically disadvantaged youth, adults, and families. The money spent at these businesses contributed more than $533,000 to the local economy.
- UMCU sponsored and participated in the Dance Marathon at U-M for the 23rd year, which benefits pediatric rehabilitation programs at Michigan Medicine C.S. Mott Children's Hospital.
- UMCU sponsored and participated in Toys for Mott for Michigan Medicine C.S. Mott Children's Hospital for the eighth year donating more than $5,500 in toys, gifts, and "comfort items." Over 800 kids received toys donated to the Toys for Mott Toy Store.
- UMCU donated $21,000 to the American Heart Association of Washtenaw County with over 75 UMCU team members present at the Washtenaw County Heart Walk.
- UMCU team members pledged $15,000 to United Way.
- Four shopping carts with school supplies were donated to the Washtenaw County Stuff the Bus campaign.
- UMCU donated 120 aluminum refillable water bottles to families in the Brandon NICU (60 families, 2 bottles per family).
- EMUCU sponsored the Ypsilanti Meals on Wheels virtual program in November to help support homebound seniors with hot meals.
- UMCU sponsored and participated in the John E. Lawrence Jazz Concert Series for 10 weeks and raffled off two branded chairs and a cooler bundle at the end of each concert.
- UMCU donated a total of $5,000 to Girls on the Run of Southeast Michigan, our third year supporting this program through fun, evidence-based programs that inspire all girls to build their confidence, kindness, and decision-making skills.

COMMUNITY

Financial Education

- UMCU is very committed to helping people achieve their goals and become financially healthy. In 2023, we completed 189 virtual and in-person education events and reached 4,990 individuals with our diverse programs.
- Our Youth Scholarship program continues to grow, as we received 87 applications in 2023, up from 54 in 2022.
- UMCU was recognized by the Michigan Credit Union League for excellence in financial education programs. Both our Adult and Youth programs were named as Desjardins award winners for our financial wellness efforts with members and throughout the community.
- We taught our popular Homebuyer Education workshop 15 times, including two sessions as a part of WCC's Free College Week campaign in April.
- New for 2023 - Financial Wellness Resource Days at our local branches. These all-day events provide members the opportunity to access free materials and receive guidance and on-site financial counseling from the Education team.
- Strong partnerships at all three University of Michigan campuses resulted in new and repeated programs for students and staff throughout the year, reaching over 3,000 individuals via 56 separate events. In addition, our close partnership with UM's MHealthy team continues to result in many programs for staff across the university community.
- Weekly UMCU Money Monday segments on the Lucy Ann Lance radio show on 1290 WLBY.
- Community-focused activities with groups such as the Huron Valley Girl Scouts, Wolverine Pathways, Washtenaw County SummerWorks, and the Jewish Community Center.
